FIRST PRIZE — $5.00

REPORTER
SYBIL GOLDSTEIN

Montreal 29, Canada

Dear Archie,

We have a little summer cottage in the Laurentians. Every summer we go up there. One summer my sister and I woke up to some very strange scents. At first we regarded it as some burnt toast. But as it got stronger we decided to investigate. When we got downstairs all the excitement was on the back porch. It seems that my brother was trying to tackle a skunk. It had spent the night in our garbage can. In the morning our maid had disturbed it and it decided to take revenge on the closest thing to it, which happened to be a bicycle. My brother donned a swimming mask and prepared to do battle with a stick. After two unsuccessful tries the skunk got pretty angry and gave out with one final PHHHT!!

So ends my story except for the fact that our house didn't exactly smell of perfume for the next few days.

SECOND PRIZE — $3.00

REPORTER
MARY BURKE

Madison, N.J.

Dear Archie,

I would like to tell you about my trip from California to New Jersey. I was born in Narin County, right across from San Francisco. Many people always tell me they would love to live in California. What they don't know is that there is never a change of season there. That is why I love New Jersey. You can distinguish one season from another here.

Our trip to New Jersey took thirteen days. All the states we went through were beautiful. I have visited 25 states as well as Canada and Mexico. Palm Springs was one of the cities that left an impression on me. It was so beautiful! There was a town in Arizona called Sunrise. You couldn't see it till you crossed a small hill and there it was!

Although I loved California, I think I enjoy New Jersey more. The seasons, the area, and the neighborhood are all wonderful. All the kids in my neighborhood are great and there are so many of them. It must be the best neighborhood in the world! I think New Jersey is the most wonderful state in the United States.

THIRD PRIZE — $2.00

REPORTER
DIANE BUTO
3943 Carpenter Avenue

Dear Archie,

I have three birds. All of them are parakeets—one male and two females. The male's name is Chippy and the females are named Chickie and Chi-Chi. I got them when they were babies as a birthday gift.

Chippy and Chi-Chi are blue, black, and yellow and Chickie is green, blue and black.

They do many tricks, for example rolling marbles, chirping little tunes and many other things. They sometimes even sit on my head or shoulder while I study, read, or do my home work. Parakeets are such lovable birds and they make such wonderful house pets. I just love my birds!

FOURTH PRIZE — $1.00

REPORTER
DORA BARNSTONE

Dear Archie,

You are very funny in the comics with all your friends. You are the funniest with Big Ethel. You are the best comic character in the whole United States. I always get your club news and I always get your magazines. I have enjoyed your comics since I was five years old. I always look for your magazine in stores and whenever I see one I stop and buy it.

FIFTH PRIZE — $1.00

REPORTER
KAREN LEACH

Brooklyn 20, N.Y.

Dear Archie,

Let me tell you about my dog. She is 10 months old and her name is Trixie. She is a mongrel, half dachshund and half beagle. She acts just like a human being. She sits on the couch and waits to be served. However the time she likes best is bedtime. She jumps on somebody's bed, gets under the covers, and later takes her head out and rests it on the pillow. Whenever Trixie hears the bell ring she runs to see who it is and whenever somebody talks about her she looks at them as if she understands everything they say. Sometimes I think she does understand.
